MARKET DULL AND UNINTERESTING

Severe Snowstorm Kept Attend ance on Exchange Small.

DEALINGS IN ONLY FEW STOCKS

Undertone Was Firm, and While Prices Did Not Hold Always at the Best, the Level Did Not Get Below That of Saturday Night.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—To-day's severe snow storm lessened the attendance at NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—To-day's severe snow storm lessened the attendance at the Stock Exchange and made the stay short of those brokers who did attend. The consequence was a dull and uninteresting market of no very fixed tendency. Only a few stocks showed dealings of any importance, and the price movement in these was inclined to vary. A number of usually inactive stocks made some progress upwards. The undertone was firm, and while prices and not hold always at the best, the level of prices did not get below Saturday night. There was an active speculation in Metropolitan Street Railway, but the opinion of the new plan remained about as unifixed as since its promulgation. Sugar advanced on account of the rise in the price of refined sugar, and the continued hope that the duty on Cuban sugar would be remitted by Congress. The urgent buying of raw copper in London and the sharp ndvance in the price resulted in buying of Amalgamated Copper here. There was some improvement in the stocks of different steel companies, apparently in connection with the annual meeting of the United States Steel Corporation, but the movement of the United States Steel stocks themselves was narrow and dealings were not on a very large scale, considering the enormous volume of the capital. The railroad list, outside some of the minor stocks, was sluggish and neglected. The continued paucity of the grain movement and the obstruction to traffic by storms foreshadows a repetition of the decreases of gross carnings for the second week in February. Although confidence has been professed in Wall Street that the Supreme Court will hand down a decision next Monday favorable to the Northern Securities Company, as the time approaches for the court to convene there is a disposition to held off speculative operations until the case is decided. There seemed to be less apprehension feit among brokers regarding the threatened collection of the tax upon collateral in call loans. The money market showed some degree of firmness, although not quotably changed.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $3,470,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

The total sales of stocks for the day were 488,200 shares.

A GOOD START

Strong Yesterday.

SUGAR WAS THE FEATURE

Point-Colorado Southern and Sloss Strong.

The stock market was steady yesterday at about Saturday's prices, although in some cases there were advances, notably in Sugar, which sold above 131. This was due in part to the advance of 5 points in the price of granulated sugar by the Arbuckles and to favorable news from Washington concerning reciprocity with Cuba. ing, and traders were looking out for a soft spot, but the tone was generally strong. There was some early selling o strong. There was some early selling of Brooklyn Rapid Transa on the theory that the traffic had been seriously impaired by the snow storm, but there were good supporting orders, and the price was not hammered down much. Metropolitan was strong on the advance in the prices of rights.

UNITED STATES STEEL.

The stockholders of the United States Steel Corporation met and approved the by-laws as amended, and voted approval and rathication of all contracts, acts, by-laws, proceedings and permits by the Board of Directors, the Executive Conmittee and the Finance Committee since the organization of the corporation. The harmonious meeting of the stockholders of this corporation had a good effect and Steel stocks were very strong, both com-harmonious meeting of the stockholders of this corporation had a good effect and Steel stocks were very strong, both common and preferred, selling higher than on Saturday.

There was more activity, in Sloss than for some time past, and prices were materially higher, the preferred selling at a 33% and the common at 32%. These are the highest prices which the Sloss stocks have enjoyed for a long time, although it is believed that much better prices will be seen shortly. The company's affairs are in excellent condition and the earnings were never greater.

THE IRON SITUATION.
In connection with the condition of the iron and steel trade, and incidentally with general trade conditions the New York Evening Post, which is usually disposed to take a pessimistic view, says:

"Something was said of the iron trade situation in this column a week ago. It calls, in this connection, for some further notice. What the present state of things in that market proves beyond doubt or cavil is, that trade is putting this basic metal into use on a scale quite unapproached, even in the haleyon days of April, 1901. The speculator has been fairly excluded from the business. To the consumer the strongest possible assurance has been given that he can get his steel and iron next November on as easy terms as the market grants to-day, But he will not wait; what domestic makers consumer the strongest possible assurance has been given that he can get his steel and iron next November on as easy terms as the market grants to-day. But he will not wait; what domestic makers simply cannot give him, he is sending abroad to buy; he is paying the monstrous duty, a travesty on the worn-out shibboleth of 'protection,' because he would rather let the protectionist exact his penalty than defer the work until next autumn. His reason is, of course, that he sees immediate and continuous profit in use of the new materials.

"It will hardly be doubted, by experlenced observers, that to-day's unappeasable demand for iron means confidence by the builder that he will sell and rent more houses if he can erect them; by the railway manager that he will get more traffic if he can lay down rails enough over which to carry it; by the manufacturer that he will turn a larger profit if he can only get new machinery installed. Last month the basic iron actually turned into the steel mills for such purposes exceeded the total of January, 1901, by fully 259,000 tons, or 20 per cent. When this is the attitude of the entire industrial community, it is useless to talk of further trade reaction. The real contrast between our present situation and that of Europe may be judged from the fact that this immense and legitimate demand from American industry is visibly quickening the pulse of the ipon trade in Glasgow and Westphalia.

WABASH ISSUES.

Wabash issues were strong in yesterday's trading, the preferred gaining a full

Wabash Issues were strong in yesterday's trading, the preferred gaining a full point and the debenture bonds selling at 72½, 1½ per cent. higher than the lowest price of Saturday. The New York News says:

'It is believed in conservative bond circles that substantially all of the debenture A bonds of Wabash Rallroad and the greater portion of the B bonds have passed into the hands of the Gould interest. This is regarded as indicating that the plan for the retirement of these bonds is well advanced, and it is believed that the formal announcement will not long be delayed."

formal announcement will not long be de-layed."

Some strong statements concerning Southern Rallway preferred are comitis out in New York. It seems to be a fore-gone conclusion that the stock will be placed on a 5 per cent, basis at the next meeting of the directors, and some of its friends are predicting that Southern pre-ferred will sell at from 165 to 110. Others, however, think that the stock is already high enough. Louisville and Nashville, which is a 5 per cent, stock, and which is earning a great deal more, and is entitled to all that the road can earn without any preferences ahead of it, is selling around 105.

COLORADO SOUTHERN.

Colorado Southern issues were firmly held in yesterday's trading, and second preferred sold up to 35%, the common going up to 19. There was little advance in the first preferred.

There were no set backs in the market yesterday, and the closing bids were very little below the last recorded sales, which were about the best of the day. This indicates a better market to-day.
